Wine Kit	Description	Arrival Date	Price	#
LE1 Connexion Red: French Grenache & Merlot Blend	Connexion Red brings together two of France's most celebrated red grapes. Dark berry notes lead, supported by subtle plum and raspberry undertones. Gentle spice and soft herbal hints complement the fruit, while smooth tannins and bright acidity create a balanced, approachable finish. *Dry red, medium oak, medium-full body, 13.5% ABV.	December 2026	$175
LE2 Connexion White: French Viognier, Roussanne, Marsanne Blend	These varietals have been partnered in southern France for centuries. Notes of stone fruit and citrus lead the palate, with peach, apricot, and hints of nectarine. Subtle floral aromas and gentle honeyed richness add complexity, while soft acidity carries through to a smooth, rounded finish. *Dry white, unoaked, medium body, 12.5% ABV.	January 2027	$165
LE3 Milagro: Chilean Cabernet, Carmenere, Merlot, Syrah Blend	This expressive Chilean blend brings together four classic red grapes. Black and red berry flavors are joined by cherry and tart plum notes. Underlying oak, bright acidity, and polished tannins result in a smooth, balanced finish. *Dry red, medium oak, medium-full body, 14% ABV.	February 2027	$175
LE4 Synergy: Australian Semillon, Gewurtzminer Blend	This blend brings together two distinct varietals, creating an approachable, balanced wine. Aromatic notes of lychee, white peach, and citrus blossom are interwoven with subtle spice and floral hints, adding depth and complexity. Crisp acidity balances a silky texture, leading to a refreshingly satisfying finish. *Dry white, unoaked, medium body, 13% ABV.	March 2027	$165
LE5 Amici: Italian Monte, Aglianico, Sangiovese Blend with SKINS	Dark, ripe fruit flavors are complemented by bright cherry notes, while savory and herbal nuances add depth. Firm tannins and medium acidity provide structure, and the generous use of oak lends a rich, layered character. *Dry red, heavy oak, full body, 14% ABV.	April 2027	$190
